Regional Occupational Program

North Orange County Regional Occupational Program is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, and approved by the California State Department of Education.

North Orange County ROP is a cooperative effort in career technical education by five school districts: Anaheim Union and Fullerton Joint Union High School Districts, and Brea Olinda, Los Alamitos and Placentia-Yorba Linda Unified School Districts. It serves portions of Los Angeles and Orange Counties, and the cities of Anaheim, Brea, Buena Park, Cypress, Fullerton, La Habra, La Habra Heights, La Mirada, La Palma, Los Alamitos, Placentia, Rossmore, Seal Beach, Stanton, and Whittier.

"My friends ask me about my medical class every day. I tell them about what skill we practiced in class. My friend Alicia joined the class because of what I told her."

Maegan Lagow
El Dorado High School

Medical Careers Academy provides career training for students in grades 9-12. Students learn in the classroom and in a clinical setting.

"I made new friends. Learning these skills helps you in the future and gives you a career."
